DEFENDANT GENERAL MILLS, INC.'S NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF ACTION PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C.
§§ 1332, 1441

[San Diego Superior Court, Case No. 37-
2008-00054977-CU-BT-NC]

TO THE CLERK OF THE ABOVE-ENTITLED COURT AND TO PLAINTIFF AND HER COUNSEL OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332 and 1441, Defendant General Mills, Inc. ("Defendant"), removes the state court action described below to the United States District Court for the Southern District of California.
Defendant bases removal upon the following grounds:

1. On June 4, 2008, Plaintiff Erin Wright ("Plaintiff") filed a class action complaint against Defendant in the Superior Court of the State of California for San Diego County. The complaint is captioned Erin Wright v. General Mills, Inc., et al., (Case No. 37-2008-00054977-CU-BT-NC) ("Complaint"), and assigned to the Hon.
Michael B. Orfield in Department NC-28. Plaintiff served a copy of the Complaint on Defendant's registered agent on July 21, 2008. A true and correct copy of the Complaint, as well as the summons and other papers served by Plaintiff with this pleading, are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

2. Defendant has taken no action in the state court, and the state court has not entered any orders in that action.

3. This is a civil class action of which this Court has original jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332. Defendant is authorized to remove this action to this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a) and 28 U.S.C. § 1453.

4. As set forth in greater detail below, this action satisfies each of the three requirements for removal set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d): (a) there are over 100 alleged class members in Plaintiff's proposed class (id. § 1332(d)(5)(B)); (b) the combined alleged claims of all potential class members, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000,000 (id. § 1332(d)(2)); and (c) the requisite diversity exists (id.
§ 1332(d)(2)(A)).

5. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(5)(B), there are over 100 class members in Plaintiff's proposed class. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of "[a]ll persons residing in the State of California who purchased" the products at issue over the last

1 four years. (Compl. ¶ 49.) The Complaint represents that the proposed class “readily
 2 exceeds over one thousand (1,000) persons.” (Id. ¶ 55.) Based on information and 3 belief, Defendant avers that there are more than 36 million residents in the State of 4 California.

5 6. Defendant avers that the matter in controversy exceeds $5,000,000,
 6 exclusive of interest and costs, for several reasons:

7 a. Plaintiff contends that Defendant’s alleged wrongful conduct “has 8 in turn caused Plaintiff and the Class to incur millions of dollars in losses.” (Compl.
 9 ¶¶ 6, 47 (emphasis added).)

10 b. Plaintiff seeks restoration to Plaintiff and all class members of the 11 full purchase price products at issue and also prays for disgorgement of Defendant’s
 12 “ill-gotten gains.” (Id. ¶¶ 73, 82, 90, 100, 128(F).)

13 c. Defendant has sold well in excess of $10 million of these products
 14 in California in the last four years.

15 d. Plaintiff alleges an intent to amend her complaint to seek punitive
 16 damages if Defendant does not correct the alleged wrongful conduct within thirty 17 days. (Id. ¶ 127(c); see, e.g., Yeroushalmi v. Blockbuster Inc., No. 05-2550, 2005 U.S.
 18 Dist. LEXIS 39331, at *19 (C.D. Cal. July 11, 2005) (holding that “it is proper [under 19 Class Actions Fairness Act] to consider the cost of injunctive relief, potential punitive 20 damages, and attorney’s fees”).)

21 e. Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief and amendments to the product
 22 packaging. See, e.g., Yeroushalmi, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 39331, at *19; Nelson v.
 23 Bic USA, Inc., No. 07-2367, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27366 (S.D. Cal. Apr. 1, 2008), 24 at *18-19, n.7 (because plaintiff sought primarily injunctive as opposed to monetary 25 relief, “the amount in controversy could permissibly be evaluated in consideration of 26 the other costs [defendant] is at risk of incurring should Plaintiff prevail on her 27 requests for equitable relief under disgorgement, injunctive, and other theories”).
 28

f. Plaintiff's counsel seeks a recovery of its attorneys' fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §§ 1021.5 and 1032 (Compl. ¶¶ 127(e), 127(G)), and the Ninth Circuit "ha[s] held that attorneys' fees [a]re properly included in the amount in controversy in a class action" under the Class Actions Fairness Act of 2005. See Lowdermilk v. United States Bank Nat'l Ass'n, 479 F.3d 994, 1000 (9th Cir. 2007) (citing Gibson v. Chrysler Corp., 261 F.3d 927, 942-43 (9th Cir. 2001)); see also Guglielmino v. McKee Foods Corp., 506 F.3d 696, 700 (9th Cir. 2007) (noting that "Section 1332(a)'s amount-in-controversy requirement excludes only 'interest and costs' and therefore includes attorneys' fees[,] and that plaintiff sought attorneys' fees pursuant to same state statutes cited here).

g. Based on the potential size of the class, the average price of the products at issue, and the number of products sold in California during the four-year period upon which Plaintiff bases her class claims, Defendant avers that the amount in controversy readily exceeds $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2).<sup>1</sup>

7. Finally, the requisite diversity exists pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A) because Plaintiff is a citizen of a state different from Defendant. Plaintiff was at the time the Complaint was filed a California citizen and resident, and Defendant is informed and believes that Plaintiff still is a citizen and resident of California. (Compl. ¶ 17.) Defendant was at the time the Complaint was filed and still is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Minneapolis, <sup>1</sup> Defendant disputes that Plaintiff is entitled to any relief. Of course, for purposes of the removal analysis, "[t]he question is not what damages the plaintiff will recover, but what amount is 'in controversy' between the parties." Brill v. Countrywide Home Loans, Inc., 427 F.3d 446, 448 (7th Cir. 2005). For purposes of removal, the Court accepts Plaintiff's theories. Id. (rejecting argument that defendant must produce evidence that plaintiff will actually recover more than jurisdictional amount, because "suits are removed on the pleadings, long before 'evidence' or 'proof' has been adduced"). "The jurisdictional requirement is satisfied if either party can gain or lose the jurisdictional amount." Nelson v. Bic USA, Inc., No. 07-2367, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27366, at *16 (S.D. Cal. Apr. 1, 2008).

1 Minnesota. (Id. ¶ 13.) Defendant was at the time the Complaint was filed and is still a
2 citizen and resident of Minnesota. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c) (for purposes of 3 Sections 1332 and 1441, “a corporation shall be deemed to be a citizen of any State by 4 which it has been incorporated and of the State where it has its principal place of 5 business”). At no time has Defendant ever been a citizen or resident of California.

6 8. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), all process, pleadings, and other papers
7 received by Defendant in the state court action, including the Complaint, are attached
8 to this Notice as Exhibit A.

9 9. This Notice of Removal is timely pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b)
10 because it is filed within thirty days of the defendant’s receipt of the initial pleading.
11 Defendant received the Complaint when it was served via its registered agent on 12 July 21, 2008. Defendant files this Notice of Removal on August 20, 2008, within the 13 thirty-day deadline provided by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b).

14 10. Defendant will promptly give notice of this Notice to Plaintiff and will
15 file a copy of this notice with the clerk of the San Diego County Superior Court
16 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d).

17 NOTICE OF RELATED CASES PURSUANT TO LOCAL RULE 40.1

18 11. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 40.1, Defendant provides the following

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

I. NATURE OF ACTION

1. This is a class action pursuant to California's Unfair Competition Law, Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq. ("UCL"), California's False Advertising Law Business and Professions Code §§ 17500, et seq. ("FAL") and The Consumers Legal Remedies Act Civil Code § 1750, et seq. ("CLRA"), against Defendant GENERAL MILLS for its marketing, advertising, promotion and sales of "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products and "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products as "100% Natural" when these products contain one or more non-natural or artificial ingredient, such as High Fructose Corn Syrup ("HFCS").

2. The term "100% Natural" and similar terms are regularly used by manufacturers, such as the Defendant, to describe a product that does not have any chemically altered or man-made ingredients. These terms are used to convey the message that the product at issue is a healthier choice than competing products that contain processed ingredients, and that this product is superior and is even worth a premium price because of that benefit.

3. However, HFCS is a highly processed sugar substitute that does not exist in nature and is not "100% Natural." The use by GENERAL MILLS of the term "100% Natural" to describe its "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products and its "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products when, in fact, the products are not, is unfairly misleading, inaccurate, deceptive and unlawful.

4. Defendant's actions in describing these products as "100% Natural" was designed to induce consumers, such as the Plaintiff and the members of the putative Class, into believing that the product being described does not contain chemically altered or man-made ingredients and, therefore, that the product is a more healthy choice than competing products.

5. As a direct result of its misleading, deceptive, untrue advertising and its unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business practices related to the "100% Natural" products listed above, Defendant caused

1 Plaintiff and other members of the Class to purchase, purchase more of, or pay more for, these
2 Nature Valley products.

3 6. Plaintiff and the members of the putative Class would have made different purchasing
4 decisions had they known that the Defendant's "100% Natural" products contained one or more non-
5 natural or artificial ingredient(s), such as High Fructose Corn Syrup, which has in turn caused
6 Plaintiff and the Class to incur millions of dollars in losses.

8 7. Common sense dictates that the use of the term "100% natural" should be limited to those
9 products that contain NO artificial and/or synthetic ingredients and/or consist entirely of ingredients
10 that are only minimally processed, at best.

11 8. However, GENERAL MILLS has and continues to deceptively use the term "100% Natural"
12 to describe its "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products and its "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix 13 bar products when they actually contain ingredients that have been chemically altered from their 14 natural state and, therefore, cannot be considered "100% Natural".

16 9. Thus, use by GENERAL MILLS of the term "100% Natural" to describe its "Nature Valley"
17 crunchy granola bar products and its "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products creates consumer
18 confusion, is deceptive, and detrimentally effects competing products that are "100% Natural" (i.e.,
19 naturally produced or contain ONLY ingredients that are chemically unchanged from their natural 20 state).

21 II. PARTIES

22
23 10. Plaintiff is over the age of nineteen (19) years of age. Plaintiff is filing this claim on behalf
24 of herself and all residents throughout the State of California who purchased a GENERAL MILLS

6 15. At all times herein mentioned, each of the Defendants was the agent, partner, joint venture
7 and/or employee of the remaining Defendants, and was acting within the course and scope of such
8 agency, partnership, joint venture, and/or employment. Furthermore, in engaging in the conduct
9 described below, the Defendants were all acting with the knowledge, consent, approval, and/or 10 ratification of their co-Defendants.

11 12 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13 16. Jurisdiction and venue are proper in this Court.

14 17. Plaintiff is a resident citizen of the State of California, is a resident citizen of this Judicial 15 Circuit, and the acts, events, and conduct complained of herein occurred in substantial part within 16 this Judicial District. Defendant has substantial operations and/or does significant business within 17 this Judicial District and is, therefore, subject to personal jurisdiction in this Judicial District.

18 18. Plaintiff is a "consumer" and a "real party in interest" as required to bring this action and as 19 set out in Civil Code § 1780(a). Moreover, Plaintiff suffered damage and injury as a result of 20 Defendant conduct as alleged above.

22 19. Plaintiff and the members of the putative Class respectfully represent that they have injuries
23 suffered damages common to all of those similarly situated, and they specifically disclaim any 24 cause of action based in any way upon federal law, whether pursuant to federal statute, federal 25 common law, or the Constitution of the United States of America, basing their causes of action
26 solely and exclusively upon statutes and the common law of the State of California.

IV. FACTS

20. This Class Action seeks redress for GENERAL MILLS deliberate and unlawful misbranding of "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products and "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products as being "100% Natural" when, in fact, the product(s) contain at least one (1) non-natural ingredient.

21. GENERAL MILLS is in the business of producing and marketing food and beverage products to the general public throughout the United States including the State of California.

22. Upon information and belief, GENERAL MILLS entered the crunchy granola bar market in 1975. Ultimately, GENERAL MILLS developed and began marketing "100% Natural" "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products and "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products.

23. The label on each box of "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products and "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products prominently displays the words "100% Natural".

24. GENERAL MILLS has marketed these products on its website, www.generalmills.com, as "a 100 percent natural source of energy to fuel consumers' healthy, active lifestyles."

25. GENERAL MILLS website has further described its "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products as follows:

... "made with pure and simple ingredients. When you want a natural snack for your healthy, active outdoor lifestyle, reach for the great taste and whole-grain goodness of Nature Valley crunchy granola bars."

26. Similarly, GENERAL MILLS website describes its "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix products as follows:

... "Nature Valley Chewy Trail Mix Crunchy granola bars are one thing you don't want to leave behind. They ... are made from 100% natural ingredients ..."

27. However, these products are not "100% natural" because they contain a highly processed sugar substitute known as High Fructose Corn Syrup (hereinafter "HFCS").

28. HFCS does not exist in nature and is a man-made sweetener.

1 29. Therefore, to describe, label, advertise, and promote HCPS as a "Natural," "All Natural" or 2 "100% Natural" ingredient is deceptive and unfair to consumers and competitors.

3 30. HFCS is created from cornstarch, as opposed to sugar (sucrose), which is produced from 4 sugar cane or sugar beets. HFCS is produced by processing cornstarch to yield glucose, and then
5 processing a significant portion of the glucose to produce fructose. Acids or enzymes are needed
6 to break down cornstarch, which is composed of long chains of glucose molecules, into glucose
7 and then, partially into fructose.

8 31. First, the cornstarch is treated with an enzyme, alpha-amylase, to produce shorter chains of 9 sugars called polysaccharides. Alpha-amylase is industrially produced by a bacterium, usually 10 Bacillus sp. The enzyme is purified and then shipped to HFCS manufacturers.

11 32. Second, an enzyme called glucoamylase breaks the sugar chains down even further to yield
12 glucose. Unlike alpha-amylase, glucoamylase is produced industrially by Aspergillus, a fungus.
13 (Acids may be used by some companies instead of alpha-amylase and glycoamylase)

14 33. The third enzyme, glucose-isomerase, converts glucose to a mixture of about forty-two 15 percent (42%) fructose and fifty to fifty-two percent (50% to 52%) glucose, with some other sugars
16 (or short polymers of glucose) mixed in. While alpha amylase and glucoamylase are added directly 17 to the slurry, pricey glucose-isomerase is packed into columns and the sugar mixture is then passed 18 over it. The sweet liquid with forty-two percent (42%) fructose is used as HFCS 42 in some 19 applications.

21 34. If the end user wants a higher percentage of fructose in its HFCS, two additional steps are 22 necessary. First, a liquid chromatography step takes the mixture to ninety-percent (90%) fructose.
23 Second, the ninety-percent (90%) mixture is back-blended with the original mixture to yield a final 24 concentration of about fifty-five (55%) fructose. This mixture is what the industry commonly 25 refers to as HFCS 55, and is the industry standard.
26
27
28

1 35. Isomerization to create HFCS generally takes place in large, backed-bed reactors. These 2 are cylindrical columns designed to give good flow distribution and flow control. Isomerization of 3 dextrose to fructose is a thermodynamically controlled reaction.

4 36. The process described herein above does NOT otherwise occur in nature. Indeed, the 5 process used to create HFCS has only been in existence for the last 50 years.

6 37. Furthermore, the molecules in HFCS, and in the Defendant' "100% Natural" "Nature
7 Valley" crunchy granola bar products and "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products were not 8 extracted from natural sources, but created through enzymatically catalyzed chemical reactions in 9 factories.

10 38. Once the complicated process for creating HFCS is understood, it is clear why describing 11 products that contain HFCS as "100% Natural" is misleading and deceptive.

12 39. HFCS is a man-made product and its use in the Defendant' "100% Natural" "Nature 13 Valley" crunchy granola bar products and "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products is 14 misleading to the general public, consumers of the products, and the present Plaintiff.

15 40. GENERAL MILLS is telling the general, consuming public of the State of California that 16 "100% Natural" "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products and "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-17 mix bar products are "100% natural" when they are not.

18 41. This action does not challenge GENERAL MILLS' use of HFCS in its products, nor does 19 this action allege that HFCS has any adverse health effects. This action only challenges use of the 20 phrase "100% natural" to describe, promote, market, and sell products that contain the non-natural,
21 man-made, synthetic sugar substitute, HFCS.

22 42. GENERAL MILLS produces, markets, promotes, and sells "Nature Valley" crunchy granola
23 bar products and "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products that are deceptively labeled as 24 "100% natural" but contain HFCS. GENERAL MILLS does not mention that these products contain
25
26
27
28

1 HFCS except in hard-to-read type in the "ingredients" statement on the reverse/rear side of the 2 product container. This is despite the fact that HFCS is a primary ingredient in each such product.

3 43. GENERAL MILLS is intentionally and purposely manipulating the labeling of certain of its
4 products in violation of the law and with the specific intent of misrepresenting said "Nature Valley"
5 crunchy granola bar products and "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products are "100% Natural"
6 when they are clearly not. Such conduct is in direct violation of California consumer protection laws
7 in that such conduct constitutes a deceptive and unfair trade practice.

8 44. Plaintiff purchased GENERAL MILLS "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products and 9 "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products expecting a healthy food product. Plaintiff was 10 attracted to GENERAL MILLS' products because the label indicated that the "Nature Valley"
11 crunchy granola bar products and its "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products were made from 12 "100% natural" ingredients.

13 45. Plaintiff reasonably believed that "100% natural" labeled products contain ingredients found
14 in nature or, at least, ingredients minimally processed from things found in nature. Plaintiff does not 15 consider HFCS to be a "natural" ingredient.

16 46. Plaintiff relied on the "100% Natural" ingredient representation to his detriment. Only after 17 Plaintiff purchased and consumed the products did he learn that the products actually contained
18 HFCS, an artificial ingredient.

19 47. Plaintiff and the members of the putative Class would have made different purchasing
20 decisions had they known that the Defendant's "100% Natural" products contained one or more non-
21 natural or artificial ingredient(s), such as High Fructose Corn Syrup, which has in turn caused
22 Plaintiff and the Class to incur millions of dollars in losses.

23 48. Plaintiff bargained for and paid for a "100% Natural" product, but instead received a product
24 with a non-natural, man-made, artificial ingredient, HFCS, which had no value or benefit to him.
25
26
27
28

V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

49. Plaintiff brings this action as a class action pursuant to California Civil Code §1780, et seq., on his own behalf, and on the behalf of all others similarly situated, with the Class being defined as follows:

All persons residing in the State of California who purchased GENERAL MILLS, INC., "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products marketed, advertised, promoted, labeled and sold as "100% Natural," but that contained HFCS and/or other unnatural ingredients, during the "Class Period"

50. Specifically excluded from the Class is any entity in which GENERAL MILLS, INC., has a controlling interest, and any and all officers, directors, employees, affiliates, subsidiaries, legal representatives, heirs, successors, and/or assigns of any such entity, together with any immediate family member of any officer, director or employee of said companies.

51. Also excluded from the Class is any Judge or Magistrate presiding over this Action and members of their immediate families, and any counsel for any Defendant, counsel's staff, and/or immediate families.

52. The "Class Period" is defined as being the four (4) years immediately preceding the filing of this action.

53. A class action is maintainable under California Rules of Civil Procedure, because Defendant has acted and refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief and declaratory relief appropriate with respect to the Class as a whole.

54. Alternatively, a class action is maintainable under California Civil Code Section 1780, et seq. because common questions predominate over any questions affecting individual members of the Class, and litigation as a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy for the following reasons:

1 55. While the exact number of Class members for each respective Class is presently unknown to
2 the Plaintiff, and can only be ascertained through appropriate discovery, Plaintiff believes the 3 members of the Class readily exceeds over one thousand (1,000) persons.

4 56. The claims of the Plaintiff and the Class raise questions of law and fact that are common to 5 all members and which predominate over any questions solely affecting individual members of the 6 Class. Among questions of law and fact common to the Class:

- 8 a. Whether Defendant misrepresents the ingredients, characteristics or other aspects of 9 its "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix
10 bar products;
11 b. Whether Defendant mislabels its "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or 12 "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products;
13 c. Whether Defendant's misrepresentations are unfair, deceptive, untrue, or misleading
14 advertising as defined under California Business and Professions Code § 17500 et 15 seq.;
16 d. Whether Defendant's mislabeling of its "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products
17 or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products constitutes unfair, deceptive, untrue,
18 or misleading advertising as defined under California Business and Professions Code
19 § 17500 et seq.;
20 e. Whether Defendant's mislabeling of its "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products
21 or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products is unlawful, unfair or fraudulent
22 under California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.;
23 f. Whether Defendant's misrepresentations are unlawful, unfair or fraudulent under 24 California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.;
25
26
27
28

- 1 g. Whether Defendant knew, or by the exercise of reasonable care should have known,
2 that its misrepresentations and mislabeling of the "Nature Valley" crunchy granola
3 bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products was untrue or would 4 be misleading to a reasonable consumer;
- 5 h. Whether Defendant knowingly and intentionally concealed from Plaintiff and the 6 members of the Class that its "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or 7 "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products were mislabeled and that the 8 ingredients were misrepresented;
- 9 i. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair and deceptive conduct in a violation of 10 California Civil Code section 1750, et seq.
- 11 j. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair and deceptive conduct in a violation of 12 California Civil Code section 1770(a)(5) which prohibits: "Representing that goods
13 or services have sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, or 14 quantities which they do not have or that a person has a sponsorship, approval, 15 status, affiliation, or connection which he or she does not have."
- 16 k. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair and deceptive conduct in violation of 17 California Civil Code section 1770(a)(7) which prohibits: "Representing that goods
18 or services are of a particular standard, quality, or grade, or that goods are of a 19 particular style or model, if they are of another."
- 20 l. Whether Plaintiff and the members of the proposed Class have been injured or 21 suffered losses and, if so, the extent of their injury or loss;
- 22 m. Whether Defendant should be enjoined from engaging in the conduct complained of 23 herein; and,
25
26
27
28

n. Whether Defendant has been unjustly enriched through the wrongful conduct set forth herein.

57. Plaintiff's claims as representative of the Class are typical of the claims of the absent class members. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class, and has retained attorneys experienced in class and complex litigation as her counsel.

58. The prosecution of individual actions by members of the Class would create the risk of: (1) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant; and (2) adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

58. Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the advertising, marketing and labeling of Defendant's "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products.

59. Plaintiff avers that the prerequisites for class action treatment apply to this action and that questions of law or fact common to the members of the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversies which are the subject of this action.

60. Plaintiff further states that the interests of judicial economy will be served by concentrating litigation concerning these claims in this Court, and that the management of the proposed Class will not be difficult.

VI. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Business and Professions Code § 17500, et seq. - Misleading and Deceptive Advertising)

61. Plaintiff repeats each and every allegation contained in the paragraphs above and incorporates such allegations by reference herein.

1 62. Plaintiff asserts this cause of action for violations of California Business and Professions
2 Code §17500, et seq. for misleading and deceptive advertising against Defendant.

3 63. At all material times, Defendant has engaged in a scheme of offering for sale "Nature
4 Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products to Plaintiff
5 and other members of the Class, by way of, inter alia, the World Wide Web (Internet), product
6 packaging and labeling, commercial advertisements, and other promotional materials. The "Nature
7 Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products actually 8 contain HFCS, an artificial and manmade ingredient.

9 64. Said labeling and other inducements were made within the State of California and come 10 within the definition of advertising as contained in Business and Professions Code §17500, et seq.
11 in that such promotional materials and product labeling are intended as inducements to purchase
12 the products and are statements disseminated by Defendant to Plaintiff and the members of the 13 Class and are intended to reach these consumers.

14 66. Defendant knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that these 15 statements would be misleading and deceptive to the reasonable consumer.

16 67. In furtherance of said plan and scheme, Defendant has manufactured and distributed within 17 the State of California via the World Wide Web (Internet), product packaging and labeling, 18 commercial advertisements and other promotional materials, statements that falsely advertise the 19 true nature of their "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-
20 mix bar products as being "100% Natural."

21 68. The "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar
22 products contain an artificial man-made sweetener, HFCS.

23 69. Consumers, including Plaintiff and the members of the Class necessarily and reasonably 24 relied on the label and other marketing materials for these products.

25 70. Consumers, including Plaintiff and the members of the Class were among the intended 26 targets of these representations and statements.

27 71. The above acts of Defendant, in disseminating said misleading and deceptive
28 representations and statements throughout the State of California to consumers, including Plaintiff

1 and members of the Class, were and are likely to deceive reasonable consumers, including Plaintiff
 2 and other members of the Class by obfuscating the nature of the ingredients of the "Nature Valley"
 3 crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products, all in violation of 4 the "misleading prong" of California Business and Professions Code § 17500, et seq.

5 72. As a result of the above violations of the misleading prong of Business and Professions
 6 Code § 17500, et seq., Defendant has been unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiff and the 7 other members of the Class.

8 73. Plaintiff and the members of the Class, pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17535,
 9 are entitled to an order of this Court enjoining such future wrongful conduct on the part of 10 Defendant, and such other orders and judgments which may be necessary to disgorge Defendant's
 11 ill-gotten gains and restore to any person in interest any money paid for the "100% Natural"
 12 "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products as 13 a result of the wrongful conduct of Defendant.

14 74. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for relief, for herself and for the members of the Class, as set
 15 forth below.

16 VII. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Business and Professions Code § 17500, et seq. - Untrue Advertising)

18 75. Plaintiff repeats each and every allegation contained in the paragraphs above and 19 incorporates such allegations by reference therein.

20 76. Plaintiff asserts this cause of action for violations of California Business and Professions
 21 Code § 17500, et seq. for untrue advertising against Defendant.

22 77. At all material times, Defendant has engaged in a scheme of offering for sale "Nature
 23 Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products to Plaintiff
 24 and the other members of the Class, by way of, inter alia, the World Wide Web (Internet), product
 25 packaging and labeling, commercial advertisements and other promotional materials.

26 78. The "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar
 27 products contain an artificial man-made sweetener, HFCS.
 28

79. Consumers, including Plaintiff and the members of the Class, necessarily and reasonably relied on the label and other marketing materials for these products.

80. Consumers, including Plaintiff and the members of the Class, were among the intended targets of these representations and statements.

81. The above acts of Defendant, in disseminating said misleading and deceptive representations and statements throughout the State of California to consumers, including Plaintiff and members of the Class, were and are likely to deceive reasonable consumers, including Plaintiff and other members of the Class by obfuscating the nature of the ingredients of the "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products, all in violation of the "untrue" prong of California Business and Professions Code §17500, et seq.

82. Plaintiff and the members of the Class, pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17535, are entitled to an order of this Court enjoining such future wrongful conduct on the part of Defendant, and such other orders and judgments which may be necessary to disgorge Defendant's ill-gotten gains and restore to any person in interest any money paid for the "100% Natural" "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products as a result of the wrongful conduct of Defendant.

83. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for relief, for herself and for the members of the Class, as set forth below.

VIII. THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq. - Unlawful Business Acts and Practices)

84. Plaintiff repeats each and every allegation contained in the paragraphs above and incorporates such allegations by reference herein.

85. Such acts of Defendant, as described above, and each of them, constitute unlawful business acts and practices.

86. In this regard, manufacturing, marketing, advertising, selling and distributing the "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products as "100% Natural" when, in fact, they contain HFCS, is unlawful.

1 87. The business practices alleged above are unlawful under the Consumers Legal Remedy Act,
2 Cal. Civ. Code §1750, et seq. ("CLRA"), which also forbids deceptive advertising, among other
3 things.

4 88. The business practices alleged above are unlawful under Business and Professions Code
5 §17200, et seq. by virtue of violating Business and Professions Code §17500, et seq., which forbids
6 untrue advertising and misleading advertising.

7 89. The business practices alleged above are also unlawful as a breach of an express warranty
8 under California Commercial Code § 2313; and, breach of implied warranty of fitness for a 9 particular purpose under California Commercial Code § 2315.

10 90. As a result of the wrongful business practices described above, Plaintiff and the members of
11 the Class, pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17203, are entitled to an order enjoining
12 such future wrongful conduct on the part of Defendant and such other orders and judgments which
13 may be necessary to disgorge Defendant's ill-gotten gains and to restore to any person in interest
14 any money paid for the "100% Natural" "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature
15 Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products as a result of the wrongful conduct of Defendant.

16 91. The above-described unlawful business acts and practices of Defendant present a 17 reasonable likelihood of deception to Plaintiff and members of the Class in that Defendant has 18 systematically perpetrated and continues to perpetrate such acts or practices upon members of the 19 Class by means of misleading advertising and marketing.

20 92. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for relief, for herself and for the members of the Class, as set
21 forth below.

22 IX. FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq. - Unfair Business Acts and Practices)

24 93. Plaintiff repeats each and every allegation contained in the paragraphs above and 25 incorporates such allegations by reference herein.

26 94. Such acts of Defendant, as described above, and each of them, constitute unfair business
27 acts and practices.
28

1 95. Plaintiff, and other members of the Class who purchased any of the "100% Natural"
2 "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products
3 suffered a substantial injury by virtue of buying a product they would not have purchased absent
4 Defendant's unfair advertising, by virtue of buying more of these products they would have absent
5 Defendant's unfair advertising, or by paying more for these products than they would have absent
6 the Defendant's unfair advertising.

7 96. There is no benefit to consumers or competition by falsely advertising these products.
8 Indeed, the harm to consumers and competition is substantial.

9 97. Plaintiff and other members of the Class who purchased any of the "100% Natural" "Nature
10 Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products had no way
11 of reasonably knowing that Defendant's products were not "100% Natural", as labeled and 12 otherwise advertised.

13 98. Thus, these consumers could not have reasonably avoided the injury each of them suffered.

14 99. The gravity of the consequences of Defendant's conduct as described above outweighs any 15 justification, motive or reason therefore, particularly considering the available legal alternatives
16 which exist in the marketplace, and is immoral, unethical, unscrupulous, offends established public
17 policy or is substantially injurious to Plaintiff and other members of the Class.

18 100. As a result of the business acts and practices described above, Plaintiff and the members of
19 the Class, pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17203, are entitled to an order enjoining
20 such future wrongful conduct on the part of Defendant, and such other orders and judgments which
21 may be necessary to disgorge Defendant's ill-gotten gains and to restore to any person in interest
22 any money paid for the "100% Natural" "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature
23 Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products as a result of the wrongful conduct of Defendant.

24 101. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for relief, for herself and for the members of the Class, as set
25 forth below.

28 ///

X. FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq. - Fraudulent Business Acts and Practices)

102. Plaintiff repeats each and every allegation contained in the paragraphs above and incorporates such allegations by reference herein.

103. Such acts of Defendant as described above, and each of them, constitute fraudulent business practices under California Business and Professions Code sections § 17200, et seq.

104. As more fully described above, the labeling of the "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products is likely to deceive reasonable California purchasers, such as the Plaintiff and the members of the Class.

105. Indeed, Plaintiff and other members of the Class were unquestionably deceived into believing the products they purchased were "100% Natural", when in fact, they contained an artificial ingredient, HFCS.

106. Said acts are fraudulent business acts and practices.

107. This fraud and deception caused Plaintiff and members of the Class to purchase "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products and Plaintiff and the members of the Class suffered a substantial injury by virtue of buying a product they would not have purchased absent Defendant's unfair advertising, by virtue of buying more of these products they would have absent Defendant's unfair advertising, or by paying more for these products than they would have absent the Defendant's unfair advertising.

108. As a result of the business acts and practices described above, Plaintiff and the members of the Class, pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17203, are entitled to an order enjoining such future wrongful conduct on the part of Defendant, and such other orders and judgments which may be necessary to disgorge Defendant's ill-gotten gains and to restore to any person in interest any money paid for the "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products at issue as a result of the wrongful conduct of Defendant.

109. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for relief, for herself and for the members of the Class, as set forth below.

XI. SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(California Civil Code § 1750, et seq. - The Consumers Legal Remedies Act)

(Injunctive and Declarative Relief Only)

110. Plaintiff repeats each and every allegation contained in the paragraphs above and incorporates such allegations by reference herein.

111. Plaintiff brings this action pursuant to California's Consumer Legal Remedies Act ("CLRA") California Civil Code § 1750, et seq.

112. The CLRA provides that "unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices undertaken by any person in a transaction intended to result or which results in the sale or lease of goods or services to any consumer are unlawful."

113. At this time, Plaintiff, for herself and on behalf of the members of the Class, seeks only injunctive relief under the CLRA.

114. By this action, Plaintiff seeks to enjoin the unfair, unlawful, and deceptive acts and conduct of the Defendant as more fully described above.

115. The "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products at issue are "goods" as defined by the CLRA in California Civil Code § 1761(a).

116. Defendant is a "person" as defined by the CLRA in California Civil Code § 1761(c).

117. Plaintiff and the members of the Class are "consumers" as defined by the CLRA in California Civil Code § 1761(d).

118. The buying of the "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products by Plaintiff and the members of the Class are "transactions" as defined by California Civil Code § 1761(e).

119. The mislabeling of the "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products is prohibited pursuant to the CLRA, since they are "undertaken by any person in a transaction intended to result or which results in the sale or lease of goods or services to any consumer."

120. Defendant engaged in unfair and deceptive acts declared unlawful by the CLRA by knowingly and intentionally mislabeling the "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or

1 "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products as "100% Natural" when in fact these products
2 contain HFCS, an artificial ingredient that does not naturally occur.

3 121. This unfair and deceptive conduct is a violation of California Civil Code § 1770(a)(5),
4 which prohibits "Representing that goods or services have sponsorship, approval, characteristics,
5 ingredients, uses, benefits, or quantities which they do not have or that a person has a sponsorship,
6 approval, status, affiliation, or connection which he or she does not have."

7 122. This unfair and deceptive conduct is also a violation of California Civil Code § 1770(a)(7)
8 which prohibits: "Representing that goods or services are of a particular standard, quality, or 9 grade, or that goods are of a particular style or model, if they are of another."

10 123. The Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts and conduct have violated, and continue to 11 violate, California's Consumers Legal Remedies Act, Civil Code § 1750, et seq., because they 12 extend to transactions that are intended to result, or have resulted, in the sale or lease of goods or 13 services to consumers, including the Plaintiff and the members of the Class.

14 124. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts or practices,
15 Plaintiff and the members of the Class have suffered damages in that they purchased misbranded
16 products they would not have bought, purchased more of these products than they would otherwise
17 have bought, or that they paid more for these products than they would have if these products had 18 been honestly advertised and labeled.

19 125. Plaintiff and the members of the Class seek the following relief under the CLRA for the 20 unfair and deceptive acts and conduct of the Defendant:

21 a. Preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against the Defendant's unfair and 22 deceptive acts and conduct.

23 126. In addition, contemporaneously with the filing of this action, Plaintiff served the Defendant,
24 by certified mail return receipt requested, with notice and demand to correct, repair, replace or 25 otherwise rectify the unlawful, unfair, false and deceptive practices complained of herein, as 26 required by the CLRA in California Civil Code § 1782.

127. If Defendant fails to do so within thirty (30) days of that demand, Plaintiff will amend this complaint to seek the following relief, for herself and for the Class, as allowed under California Civil Code § 1780:

- a. Actual damages of not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).
- b. Restitution.
- c. Punitive damages.
- d. Costs of the action,
- e. Reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to California Civil Code § 1780(d).
- f. Any other relief which the Court deems proper.

XII. RELIEF DEMANDED

128. For herself, and for the Class she seeks to represent, Plaintiff asks for the following relief:

- A. An Order certifying that the action may be maintained as a class action;
- B. An Order that the Plaintiff may serve as representative of the Class;
- C. For a preliminary and permanent injunction enjoining Defendant from advertising, representing, or otherwise holding out for sale within the State of California, any products which contain HFCS as being "100% Natural";
- D. An Order requiring Defendant to provide a form of corrective advertising designed to correct the misrepresentations, misstatements and omissions made in the marketing, advertising, packaging and other promotional materials related to its "100% Natural" "Nature Valley" crunchy granola bar products or "Nature Valley" chewy-trail-mix bar products;
- E. For a judgment of the Court to restore, by way of restitution, refund or reimbursement, to any person in interest, any money acquired by means of Defendant's untrue, deceptive or misleading advertising and/or unfair, unlawful or fraudulent business acts and practices described herein;
- F. Disgorgement of the excessive and ill-gotten monies obtained by Defendant as a result of the untrue and misleading advertising and unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business acts and practices described herein;

- 1 G. For an award of attorney fees pursuant to, inter alia, Code of Civil Procedure §§ 1021.5 and 2 1032;
3 H. For costs of suit herein incurred pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1033.5;
4 I. Pre and post-judgment interest; and/or 5 J. For such other and further relief as this Court deems appropriate or which is allowed for in 6 law or equity.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. ## INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity.

Example:

U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553

Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
